Esmel to the East and Northeast Florida Annual Conferences, respectively and Rev. A. A. Williams to the South Florida Annual Conference.

Then the Bshop read out the Appointments. This closed the best Annual Conference for many years.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY

Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, February, 1935.

To the Bishop and Brethren of the Orlando Florida Conference.
Greetings.

Your humble servant selected to write on the State of the Country submits this as my report. The United States of America in declaration is still the "land of the brave and the home of the free." Her citizenry is still aggressive, intelligent, patriotic and devotedly loyal to ideals bringing into existence the Constitution and principles of our country. Co-operative, Federal and State appropriations for the education of its subjects, suffrage in general is supported by State and Federal governments; the continued unrestrained freedom of the right to worship our Heavenly Father everywhere is still in effect. The earth is still producing plentifully as heretofore. The forest being reset with trees, and nature producing in abundance to the delight of earth's dependence universally.

At present statistics reveal that there are at present a condition in the nation which is still alarming. Between four and five millions of our citizenry still on the emergency relief roll, while millions walk the streets and roam the country looking for employment, while our national banks and depositories are filled with unused wealth. The brain trust of the nation, without President Franklin D. Roosevelt and some of the best educators and experienced men in the nation, seem helplessly baffled and dumbfounded to find the cause and fix the remedy while despair and destruction are overtaking the minds and hearts of many.

Out of this general economical and financial condition has gone forth lawlessness and crime unprecedented in the country's history; religious persuasions and moral practices seem to be losing their grip upon the multitudes. The crime wave reached its highest point in 1934 through the unmerciful lawless slaying of law enforcement officers and innocent citizens by John Dillinger, John Hamilton, Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd, Homer T. Carrell, Chas. Makley, Clyde Barrow, H. Van Meter. Yet after spending much money, and the sacrifice of many lives they have all about been wiped out, and their unlawful depredations brought to an end.

Attorney Scott M. Loftin, president of the American Bar Association, speaking before the Oklahoma Bar Association said the United States must arouse anti-crime spirit or face a possibly new government. More respect for law must be instilled into the hearts and minds of the people. To protect our good name, to preserve our reputation and our influence, we must exert every effort towards the improvement of our criminal law for the prevention of crime. The most thoughtful thinkers are agreeing that we have completely broken faith with the course of the past, and that a new era has dawned upon us, but we seem unwilling to yield and adjust our life to the demands of the new day.

Strikes

Throughout the nation, general unsatisfactory wages to the laborer have led to numbers of strikes, where the loss ran into millions, and many lives were sacrificed, the biggest being the textile strike where hundreds of thousands of workers responded to the call of union leaders which had its effect; their decision to terminate the most gigantic walkout of modern times followed a thorough study and discussion of a settlement plan advanced by the Wingate Meditation

Board, and endorsed by President Roosevelt. Other strikes followed in Pennsylvania, Virginia, Georgia and Michigan. We are reaching the place more and more when inhumanities, injustices and brutalities shall be done away with when controlled by capitalistic, monopolistic syndicates and corporations. Nothing less than righteous cooperation and universal brotherhood will solve this mighty problem of today. It is folly to believe that a nation can be universally balanced and re-adjusted until the same thing takes place in the civilized world of which we are a vital part and in whose program we must be factors and ardent performers. Greed has outrun our righteousness, and failures and want are the rewards of our deed.

The determination to push the New Deal program was revealed by President Roosevelt in a speech at Tupelo, Mississippi, November 18, 1934. He asserted that "all is well with the country and we are coming back," and prescribed the Tennessee Valley Power and rehabilitation experiment for nation-wide operation. Henry Ford predicts decided upturn for the New Year. "A good solid year for business," he said on December 27th, last that contracts aggregating $12,000,000 already had been awarded in connection with the company's $20,000,000 expansion program.

On January 4th, last, the President said in his personal message in a joint session on his recovery program: "The United States must cease dole, furnish jobs. This Federal Government must and shall quit this business of relief." In building toward this end we do not destroy ambition, nor do we seek to divide our wealth into equal shares on stated occasions. For no wise man has any intention of destroying what is known as the profit motive, because by the profit motive we mean the right to work and earn a decent livelihood for ourselves and for our families.

He asks a lump sum of Four Billion Dollars of which Congress voted for his relief plan. The views of the President with reference to the country's condition are that he finds the nation gradually conquering the depression. We are the neighbors of the peoples of the earth in spite of whatever we think or do, and we find ourselves a member of the great family of the nations of the earth.

A. A. WILLIAMS.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

Ocala, Florida, February, 1935.

To Bishop J. S. Flipper, A. M., D. D., LL. D., Presiding Elders and Members of the Orlando Florida Annual Conference of the A. M. E. Church, Now Assembled in its Second Session. Greeting.

We your Committee beg to make the following as our report.

The church, the Visible Church consists of organized believers in Christ and followers of His life."

Intellectually

Under the present leadership of the church, she is developing an array of men with a clearer vision of the church's need, each day the thoughts and plans for a better working program. Our own Bishop J. S. Flipper has shown to Florida and the church in general that it does not take as much time to do what we are doing as it once took. Students are coming out of the schools and colleges, and in many of our churches we find students and teachers as never before coming to the front. The ministers are returning to school in order to measure up to the standard.

In many of our towns and villages the ministers are called upon for their opinions in the re-setting of a more unified city-wide, as well as state-wide program for the good of the nation. Our own Bishop said in one of his addresses that students ought to be compelled to study Greek and Latin. Dr. R. R. Wright, the ceaseless writer and worker of the great needs of a prepared ministry. Bishop Ransom, as president of the Fraternal Council of Negro Churches has sounded the alarm that the church through its agents should speak his opinion as to what is right, and unless one knows, he does not know. Our schools (church schools) speak to the world the ideals of our leaders.

Authority

The Bishops are fully vested with the authority to direct the church. For years they have allowed things to run in all directions, but in these recent years, they have come out on the forefront and expressed themselves; though sometimes divided in opinion the church has been kept safe from fatal errors.

Statesmen

To some extent we are lacking in statesmanship, that is in the local churches. We sometimes ask the question, Why? Maybe they will come out of the new educational mold. Or the misconceptions of the rights of the pulpit to speak against sin by many who wishes to have the good will of the people and allow many things that are grossly wrong to go on and hold our peace for the sake of getting along with all concerned. "If these hold their peace, the stones will immediatley cry out."

Financially

The church at present is not getting her full share of the moneys she should get. There are several contributing causes. (1) The whole program of the world has changed its methods and many churchmen are awaiting the outcome; (2) many fathers and mothers who once found their way to prayer meetings, class meetings, Sunday School, morning, afternoon and evening services, sometimes come once a day and sometimes once a month; (3) those who come to each of the services from a force of habit, many times their minds are elsewhere. What they need usually comes in their minds so much so until they will tell the leader "I would pay my dues, but my insurance, etc., is due tomorrow. I'll see you next time." Lack of church love, I suppose.

Spiritual

"God is a Spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth." Today the church does not seem to the writer as spiritual as she was a few years ago. Maybe the world of things has gotten the attention of the people, or maybe the people are re-adjusting themselves to a more convenient method, or it may be that they are more worldly, or maybe they have been in the habit of breaking their promises, or it may be that we are not prayerful enough.

The A. M. E. Church in Florida

With the leadership of Bishop J. S. Flipper, with his great heart, that sends forth love for his brethren in every beat, with men who will love to follow him in letting God rule men rather than whipping them in line, with the progress we have made, in four more years we will fully realize what it means to follow godly men, and in turn become more godly ourselves. "I love thy kingdom Lord, the house of thine abode."

Your committee,

A. P. POSTELL, Chairman.

ON TEMPERANCE

Ocala, Florida, February 2, 1935.

To the Bishop, Presiding Elders and Members and Friends of the Orlando Conference.

We your Committee on Temperance beg leave to make this our report and submit the same as follows:

Among the early American colonists drinking was much more universal than at the present time, and was used on special occasions, and yet it was not a regular and systematic habit, as it is now.

And as the country grew more dense in population and knowledge broadened, they began to see the harm of intemperance and the virtue of temperance.

Now, we should be temperate in general. We should be temperate as ministers and as members of this great A. M. E. Church of ours and live so that the world that knows not Christ can see Christ through us. Too much joy riding; too much sporting; too much joy-making and pleasure is intemperance.

Take for instance the problem of poverty. We have various estimates and yet all agree that intemperance is the cause of 70 per cent of crimes committed. It is also a fact in the case of insanity.

We therefore recommend that it will go down on record that this Annual Conference will stand hard by prohibition and against other immoral conduct that will hinder the Christian cause of religion in this our great A. M. E. Church.

We Your Committee,

C. LONDY,
J. P. PARKER,
J. R. BASERY,
H. M. BROWN.
